

Quirky Wales Road Trip Stops

www.holidaysfromhels.co.uk

1	Llandudno	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Promenade: Grand terraced houses on the seafront • Boating trips from the beach. • Breakfast behind the beach in cafes reminiscent of a Welsh Louisiana. • Pier: Stroll to the soundtrack of eighties ballads • Great Orme drive - 4-mile cliff edge loop around the headland for £2.50 or Vintage headland bus tour departing from Llandudno Pier at 11am, 1pm & 3pm, 7 days a week. • Cable car: a 9-minute mile on the longest passenger cable car ride in Britain for £11.50 • Longest name: Take a selfie on Anglesey with the Europe's longest place name
2	Betws-y- Coed	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Extreme: 30 minutes to 9 hours • Riverside picnics by massive boulders • Surprise mountain shops and café in the carriage of a train. • Catch the Snowdon railway (or walk - depending on what type of legs you have)
3	Blaenau Ffestiniog	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strange and lunar post-apocalyptic quarry landscape - now a recognised beauty • Stay in a small family cottage in the grounds of a 17th century inn under the shadow of a mountain in Maentwrog • Become a Human torpedo at Zipworld or try underground trampolining. • Porthmadog should be visited for its name alone

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Welsh Riviera - Abersoch with its own micro-climate for golden sands and a seaside bistro vibe.
4	Portmeirion	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wales meets Italy: Follow your architectural whimsy in this fantastical collection of houses, ornamental gardens and Italian plazas • Stay in the hotel if you can for the full mad hatter effect.
5	Harlech	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Castle: Built 800 years ago and now stranded behind the dunes. Site of the longest siege. • Beach: Dunes and golden sands with a castle/mountain backdrop combo.
6	Aberystwyth	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Medieval castle walls: free for clambering. • Longest funicular cliff railway in Britain • A pier where wintry leafless trees.
7	Cardigan	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Birthplace of the older person's jumper choice. • Stay in rooms embedded in the walls of a 900 year old castle where ghosts open the shutters • Shop in the markets and drink in the oldest pubs • Sample the toxic sweet shop sweets and adhere to warnings given • Try pizza in a Tipi
